A silly young cricket accustomed to sing
Through the warm, sunny months of gay summer and spring,
Began to complain, when he found that at home
His cupboard was empty and winter was come.
Not a crumb to be found
On the snow-covered ground;
Not a flower could he see
Not a leaf on a tree.

1. Why is the cricket called silly ?
(A) Because he used to keep himself happy by singing.
(B) Because he sang on all through summer and didn't collect food.
(C) Because he was a complaining creature.
(D) Because he was not serious.
2. What would happen to the cricket in winter ?
(A) He would feel severe cold.
(B) He would not be able to sing and dance.
(C) He would lose his shelter.
(D) He would starve.
3. When did the cricket complain ?
(A) When he sang through the warm months of summer and spring.
(B) When he was fed up with his singing.
(C) When he found his cup-board empty and it was winter.
(D) When somebody advised him that he would starve if he didn't work.
4. Why did the cricket go to the ant ?
(A) To learn from him how to be miserly like him.
(B) To keep himself active like the ant.
(C) To take shelter and food from him.
(D) To repay whatever he had borrowed from him earlier.

The actors in their funny way
Have several funny things to say,
But they do not amuse me more
If you have said them just before.
The merit of the drama lies,
I understand, in some surprise;
But the surprise now must be small
Since you have just foretold all.

6. What are the actors in this drama trying to do ?

★ Read the following passage and select the most appropriate options given below them. (Q. 11 - 15)

When Caesar entered the House, the Senate rose to do him honour. Some of Brutus followers came up behind the chair and others before it (Brutus was a close friend of Caesar). They continued their request till he came to his seat. When he was seated, he rejected their request and grew angry. Cimber, then, with both hands pulled his gown off his neck, which was the sign for the attack. Casca gave him the first blow, but the wound was not dangerous. Caesar, therefore, turned upon him and seized his sword.

After such a beginning, many were seized with fear. They did not dare to fly or to draw their swords, and surrounded him in such a manner that, whatever way he turned, he saw nothing but swords gleaming in his face, and met nothing but wounds. Brutus himself gave him a stroke in the groin.

Some say he opposed the rest, and continued struggling and crying out, till he perceived the sword of Brutus. Then he drew his robe over his face and yielded to his fate.

11. The senate honoured Caesar by .....

Pahom was the owner of a big stretch of fertile land in Russia. He cultivated the land and got good crops. Though he was rich, he was not satisfied. He wanted more land.

Once Pahom met a land broker. He was from the distant land of Baskers. He knew that Pahom was a greedy man who wanted more land. So he told Pahom about the fertile and cheap land in Baskers. He also said that Pahom could have a lot of land just for few hundred roubles, if he was clever.

"Please tell me how I can buy that land cheap," requested Pahom.

"Make friends with the Baskers chief and give some gifts to the Baskers. They will give you as much land as you want," the broker said.
